12:00pm – 12:45pm	FIRST CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS
PYRMONT THEATRE	1.1 MASTERCLASS How to Build &amp; Implement a Net-Zero Corporate Strategy The depth of structural change required in the economy to limit global warming to 1.5°C will require everyone – countries, cities, the private sector, individuals – to strengthen their ambitions and actions, without delay. Global climate action is being led by corporates that have developed sophisticated emissions reduction strategies and #netzero2050 targets in line with climate science. Join our experts in a corporate climate strategy masterclass, that will step you through the journey of setting corporate climate strategy - including shadow carbon prices, carbon procurement strategies, operational emission reductions, science-based targets, emerging standards such as PCAF and SBT Net Zero Standard, getting executive buy-in, managing risk – and going public. MODERATOR: Matt Drum, Managing Director, Ndevr Environmental PANELLISTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Alicia Maynard, General Manager, Sustainability &amp; Technical Services, ISPT</li> <li>• James Vesper, Group Head of Sustainability, Goodman</li> <li>• Michi Morris, Director, Ndevr Environmental</li> </ul>
Room C2.2 & C2.3	1.2 PANEL Q&amp;A Driving Industry Decarbonisation COVID has taught us that there are some systemic issues that cannot be faced alone – and that the climate crisis requires sectoral, and cross-sectoral pathways that drive technological innovation, efficiency gains, and behavioural change. Join this panel of industry experts to discuss the development of very low, zero and negative emissions reduction solutions through industry collaboration and supply chain management. MODERATOR: Charles Perrottet, General Manager, Low Carbon Integration, Asia Pacific, BP PANELLISTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Josh Martin, Senior Director, Australia &amp; New Zealand, Engie Impact</li> <li>• Monica Richter, Project Director, Materials Embodied Carbon Leadership Alliance</li> <li>• Patrick Hastwell, Energy Transitions Advisory Lead Australia, KBR</li> </ul>
Room C2.5 & C2.6	1.3 2030 SCENARIOS How did we Finance Transition Opportunities &amp; Resilience Building? By 2030 we have seen unprecedented levels of capital shifted from institutional investors, banks, venture capital into the development and deployment of industrial and nature-related climate solutions. How did we manage this? How did investors manage risk and disclosure obligations, and build the sophisticated financial models, products and taxonomies that drove the expansion of a carbon constrained economy? Join this discussion for an update on the Australian Sustainable Finance Initiative and contribute to a discussion on how climate-related finance and investment will become a critical partner for decarbonisation. MODERATOR: Katharine Tapley, Head of Sustainable Finance, ANZ PANELLISTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Kristy Graham, Executive Director, Australian Sustainable Finance Initiative</li> <li>• Ben Krasnostein, Managing Director, Kilara Capital</li> <li>• Laura Hillis, Director, Corporate Engagement, Investor Group on Climate Change</li> </ul>
ROOM C3.4 & C3.5	1.4 MARKET &amp; POLICY UPDATE The State of Australian Carbon Market Reform A net-zero target is now formally in place, and the implementation of the Australian Government's Technology Roadmap and King Review Recommendations are underway. Join a panel of national climate policy investment and business leaders to discuss the evolution of the policies and frameworks that will drive net-zero decarbonisation over the next decade and beyond. MODERATOR: Brad Kerin, General Manager, Carbon Market Institute PANELLISTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Jane Wardlaw, General Manager, NGER &amp; Safeguard Branch, Clean Energy Regulator</li> <li>• Helen Bennett, Head of Climate Change Division, Department of Industry, Science, Energy &amp; Resources</li> <li>• Rory Lonergan, Executive Director &amp; Head of Infrastructure, Clean Energy Finance Corporation</li> <li>• Susie Smith, CEO, Australian Industry Greenhouse Network</li> </ul>

3:50pm – 4:35pm	SECOND CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS
PYRMONT THEATRE	2.1 MASTERCLASS How to Participate in Australia's Growing Carbon Market Net-zero corporate goals are increasing across the global economy, resulting in more and more organisations entering our national carbon market. In an ever-changing and evolving commercial environment, it's critical for new and existing participants to understand how to manage the strategic carbon procurement process, and how to ensure you can continue to access the right carbon product at the right price, when you need it. Join our experts for a masterclass on participating in Australia's carbon market; how to develop your carbon procurement strategy to achieve corporate climate goals, and the tools you can use to ensure environmental integrity, transparency and accountability in every transaction. MODERATOR: Marco Stella, Co-Founder, Renewable Energy Hub   Senior Environmental Broker, TFS Green PANELLISTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Anna Hancock, Climate Change Strategy Principal, EnergyAustralia</li> <li>Gary Wyatt, Managing Director, Corporate Carbon</li> <li>John Davis, Commercial Director, APAC &amp; North America, South Pole</li> </ul>
Room C2.2 &amp; C2.3	2.2 PANEL Q&amp;A Navigating the Evolution &amp; Linkages of Voluntary Carbon Markets Voluntary carbon markets are evolving rapidly and we are seeing a range of new standards, activities and transactions emerge across domestic and international markets. Join the discussion to explore a range of challenges on the horizon, including how environmental integrity, market transparency and accountability can be managed in a changing landscape where new voluntary carbon standards and products are emerging across the world. We'll take a look at how global developments under the Paris Agreement will impact our domestic carbon market and unpack the critical role that the Australian Carbon Industry Code of Conduct and other schemes can play in ensuring our market matures with integrity. MODERATOR: Peter Castellias, CEO, Tasman Environmental Markets PANELLISTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Tom Spooner, Global Environmental Products Trading, Australia Team Lead, Shell</li> <li>Marion Verles, CEO, SustainCert</li> <li>Vivek Dugar, Director, WeAct</li> </ul>
Room C2.5 &amp; C2.6	2.3 2030 SCENARIOS Expanding Indigenous Carbon Opportunities By 2030 Australian First Nations peoples are successfully generating social, economic, environmental and climate outcomes across Australia, and the respect for, and application of traditional knowledge and ancient land management techniques is embedded in carbon farming activities across the continent. How did we get here? Join our expert panel to discuss investment opportunities; market education; best-practice free, prior and informed consent and engagement pathways; opportunities to support First Nations climate leadership across southern Australia; and what's required to drive meaningful behavioural change over the next decade. MODERATOR: Suzanne Thompson, Managing Director, Yambangku Aboriginal Cultural Heritage &amp; Tourism Development Aboriginal Corporation PANELLISTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Dean Yibarbuk, Director, Indigenous Carbon Industry Network</li> <li>Rowan Foley, CEO, Aboriginal Carbon Foundation</li> <li>Tyronne Garstone, CEO, Kimberley Land Council</li> <li>Toby Adams, Director, Kullilli Bulloo River Aboriginal Corporation</li> </ul>

Key Takeaways from COP26

With COP26 behind us, it's clear that we must significantly increase our climate ambition and action this decade if we are to stay on track to meet the goals of Paris. Join our expert panel of to discuss the key outcomes of November's UN Climate Summit, and their implications for international cooperation, global carbon markets, and Australian business.

10:00am – 10:30am	MORNING TEA
PYRMONT THEATRE 10:30am – 11:20am	PLENARY SIX Outcomes-Driven Investment in Nature  Nature is now acknowledged as one third of the solution to the climate challenge ahead. As we enter the Paris Era, there is now a critical need to scale up investment in nature-based solutions, presenting real opportunities for the private sector to drive not just emissions reductions, but engage in climate repair-focused carbon market activities that support environmental, social and economic co-benefits. Join us to discuss how new innovations in nature-based financing is creating opportunities for markets, communities and ecosystem services in Australia and internationally.  MODERATOR: Nerida Bradley, Chief Operating Officer, GreenCollar  PANELLISTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Mladen Kovac, Director, Centre for Advanced Analytics &amp; Economics, NSW Dept of Planning, Industry &amp; Environment</li> <li>• Leslie Durschinger, Founder &amp; CEO, Terra Global</li> <li>• Martijn Wilder, Founding Partner, Pollination</li> <li>• Pepe Clarke, Deputy Director (Terrestrial), Outback to Oceans, Pew Charitable Trust</li> </ul>
11.25am – 12.10pm	THIRD CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS
PYRMONT THEATRE	3.1 MASTERCLASS Business &amp; Finance Models for Carbon Farming Investment To date, Australia's carbon farming industry has grown on a critical foundation of public funding. With increasing interest to engage from the private sector, there now exists a need for investors, valuers, traditional owners, farmers and communities to better understand the various roles and responsibilities required to engage in carbon farming activities across Australia. Join this masterclass to get a deeper clarity on the different business and financing models currently driving carbon farming; understand what you need to know to operate at best practice; explore existing barriers to entry for new market participants; and touch on new commercial opportunities that could help scale nature-based solutions as aligned with the Australian Carbon Farming Industry Roadmap. MODERATOR: Neil Hereford, Chief Investment Officer, GreenCollar PANELLISTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Jayne Baird, Vice President, Carbon Business, Woodside</li> <li>• Jamie Dore, First Reef Credits Generator, Sugarcane Farmer</li> <li>• Andrew Duncan, Managing Director &amp; Head of Debt Capital Markets, HSBC</li> </ul>

Room C2.2 & C2.3	3.2 PANEL Q&amp;A Building World-Class Australian Co-Benefit Markets: On-ground Showcase Australia has the ability to become a leader in transparent, and high integrity measurement, valuation and trade in carbon &amp; non-carbon outcomes – delivering climate repair; enhanced ecosystem services and natural capital; and improved social economic, cultural and health benefits for local and First Nations communities across the world. Join our expert panel for a showcase of how this is being operationalised through on-ground pilots, and to discuss how high-integrity co-benefit measurement and valuation system can be deployed at scale at home and abroad. MODERATOR: Skye Glenday, CEO, Climate Friendly PANELLISTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Nick Mogford, Executive Manager Strategy, Innovation &amp; Business Development, Bush Heritage</li> <li>Cassandra Stevens, Director, Kullilli Bulloo River Aboriginal Corporation</li> <li>Alex Toone, Global Head of Commodities, Commonwealth Bank of Australia</li> </ul>
Room C2.5 & C2.6	3.3 2030 SCENARIOS How did we Meet &amp; Beat Agricultural Goals for Carbon Neutrality? By 2030 Australia has created a competitive advantage in the Asia Pacific region by boosting sustainable agriculture, leading to expanded production and carbon neutral exports. How did we lead a regenerative landscape revolution? How did we build a resilient agricultural production capability? What role did ecosystem service payments play? Join this unique discussion on the pathways to position Australian agriculture as a zero-carbon export industry of the future; understand the critical role that soil carbon and soil health will play in the coming decades; and understand the scientific, financial, commercial and information technology advances that we'll need to make this vision a reality. MODERATOR: Matthew Warnken, Managing Director, Agriprove PANELLISTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Louisa Kiely, Director, Carbon Farmers of Australia</li> <li>Tom Davison, National Coordinator, Livestock Productivity Partnership, University of New England</li> <li>Mara Bún, Chair, Australian Impact Investments</li> <li>Julien Gastaldi, Chief Operating Officer, Corporate Carbon</li> </ul>
ROOM C3.4 & C3.5	3.4 MARKET &amp; POLICY UPDATE Australia's Carbon Market Demand, Supply &amp; Pricing Dynamics Australia's carbon market is rapidly evolving, and access to carbon and related commodities is still hindered by low price discovery and an opacity of longer-term demand/supply dynamics. Join this session to understand industry predictions for forward carbon pricing; discuss trends impacting the expansion of carbon credit supply volumes; and get across emerging developments that might stimulate demand for high quality carbon products in an increasingly competitive market. MODERATOR: Raphael Wood, Managing Director, Market Advisory Group PANELLISTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Emily Spears, Head of Low Carbon Trading, Asia Pacific, BP Energy Asia</li> <li>Nadine Mueller, Executive Director, Global Commodities, Commonwealth Bank of Australia</li> <li>Megan Surawski, Manager, Emissions Avoidance Methods, Clean Energy Regulator</li> </ul>
12:10pm – 1:10pm	LUNCH
PYRMONT THEATRE 1:10pm – 2:00pm	BOARDROOM MASTERCLASS Strategy-Setting for Climate Risk, Resilience &amp; Opportunity It's often hard to navigate the twists and turns of boardroom strategy, particularly in the process of building consensus on climate-related strategy, risk and opportunity. Gather around our 'mock boardroom' table to see how our experienced board-level panel face and respond to a range of real climate scenarios, covering commercial risk, liability, litigation and activism – and how to drive change within an organisation at the highest levels. 'BOARD MEMBERS': <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Jillian Button, Partner, Allens</li> <li>Sam Mostyn, Chair &amp; Non-Executive Director, Various incl. PYRMONT THEATRE 2:00pm – 2:10pm	CORPORATE CLIMATE LEADERSHIP KEYNOTE  with William Lin, Executive Vice President, Regions, Cities &amp; Solutions, BP

PYRMONT THEATRE 2:10pm – 3:00pm	PLENARY SEVEN Investor Perspectives: 2030 Challenges &amp; Opportunities The sense of urgency in managing climate risk is increasingly being demonstrated by leading investors who are recognising and responding. The recommendations of the Taskforce on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) are becoming increasingly mainstream and increasingly mandated. Investors are now looking to inevitable policies and escalating engagement not just scenario investigations. This plenary session will highlight how global and domestic investors are addressing this complex area of risk and opportunity and driving change across critical business, risk, strategy and finance functions – and driving real economic decarbonisation. MODERATOR: Rebecca Mikula-Wright, CEO, Investor Group on Climate Change SPEAKERS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Mark Fulton, Founder, Energy Transition Advisors   Inevitable Policy Response</li> <li>• Kate McKenzie, Fellow, Centre for Policy Development</li> <li>• Michael Salvatico, Head of Asia Pacific ESG Business Development, S&amp;P Global Market Intelligence</li> </ul>

How did we get here? What about the climate culture wars? Did jobs and economic opportunities in the transition lead to bipartisan support? What supporting policies were needed? Join our expert panel to discuss the next phase of Safeguard Mechanism development including the King Review recommendation to allow for crediting below baselines – and how to avoid negative market impacts in the process of building stable, long-term compliance markets that reinforce voluntary climate action. MODERATOR: Gloria Karaiskos, Director, Climate Change, Carbon Market Institute PANELLISTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Bret Harper, Director of Research, Reputex</li> <li>• Alison Reeve, Climate Change &amp; Energy Deputy Program Director, Grattan Institute</li> <li>• Tennant Reed, Principal National Advisor, Australian Industry Group</li> </ul>

The State of Asia Pacific Carbon Market Development

Asia Pacific carbon markets are evolving quickly, as investors and policy makers move to build coalitions of knowledge sharing, commercial interaction and capacity building across the region. Join our panel of regional experts to get an understanding of the current political, economic and carbon market environment, and opportunities for Australia to share its own expertise and establish a stronger leadership role in the Asia-Pacific – including the Australian Government’s recently announced Indo-Pacific Carbon Offsets Scheme.
